VISION

Publicly engaged artists, designers, scholars, and community activists working toward the democratic transformation of higher education and civic life.

MISSION

Imagining America creates democratic spaces to foster and advance publicly engaged scholarship that draws on arts, humanities, and design. We catalyze change in campus practices, structures, and policies that enables artists and scholars to thrive and contribute to community action and revitalization.

SCHEDULE ITINERARY RESOURCES

Wednesday, October 5

IA Publicly Active Graduate Education (PAGE) Summit

Wednesday, October 5 9am - 5pm

Peter J. Shields Library, Lobby

Directions: A B

Pre-conference Story Circle-to-Performance Workshop (registration required)

Wednesday, October 5 10am - 4pm

Hart Hall, Room 2202

Directions: A B

The occasion of Imagining America's 16th national conference invites us to reflect on the many ways higher education, the civic engagement movement, democracy, and our very planet sit "at the crossroads." How have we gotten here, and what do we know - and what do we need - that can move us forward into a hopeful, sustainable, and just future?

IA Presidents Council Meeting (invitation only)

Wednesday, October 5 10am - 2pm

Peter J. Shields Library, Lobby

Directions: A B

The annual Presidents' Forum is organized by Imagining America's Presidents' Council, which includes presidents and chancellors from all member institutions, as well as leaders of foundations and partner organizations. The Council is a brain trust to increase the visibility and impact of publicly engaged scholarship that draws on arts, humanities, and design.

IA National Advisory Board Meeting (Board Members Only)

Wednesday, October 5 3pm - 9pm

Peter J. Shields Library, Lobby

Directions: A B

National Advisory Board and PAGE Dinner

Wednesday, October 5 5:30pm - 6:30pm

Hyatt Place UC Davis, Old Davis Road, Davis, CA
